The Real-Life Adventures of a Professional Wing Rider Main menu Post navigation Stumbling Through the Classroom Door I've never been asked to be a teacher, but given the circumstances of how close I am to retirement, there's a strong possibility that very soon, I'll be asked to help other people teach. I'm not all that nervous about it, which you'd think I would be. But for whatever reason, it's been a couple of years since I stopped trying to think about what I'd do in that capacity. Over the past couple of days, it started to change, and I realized I wasn't quite prepared for it. I've never been a teacher of any kind, so I am on thin ice when it comes to actually learning how to teach. But, like I said, I'm close to retirement age, so maybe, just maybe, I'm closer to being ready to teach than I realize. So today, I started to think about my experiences leading up to this time in my life, and being asked to be a classroom teacher, 3e33713323
