C4D R15.Former Vice President Joe Biden told a crowd in Iowa on Monday that he saw President Donald Trump's "nationalist populism" in the rise of white supremacist and neo-Nazi groups. "This is a movement of hate," Biden said at a town hall organized by the Des Moines Register and CNN. "It was almost as if he was searching for a way to understand what it is. It's a movement of hate — and we have to take it on." Biden also touched on climate change, saying that he believed the United States would have to make a "sacrifice" to combat climate change, like the nation's coal miners. "We are going to have to make some sacrifices," he said. "I believe the country knows that. And we're going to have to decide whether or not we want to make those sacrifices." Earlier Monday, Biden said he would campaign as a Democrat during the 2020 presidential election, but would do so "in the best way I can." "I intend to take the highest road of honor," Biden said Monday in an interview with the Des Moines Register and CNN. "I intend to take the highest road of honor. So what I'll do is I'll be here in the state of lowa, knocking on doors. I intend to be in Nevada, we'll do some things in South Carolina. So we're going to do the best we can." Biden, who has served as vice president under former President Barack Obama, also denied reports that his age is a concern to Democratic voters. "I'm not worried about my age. I'm not worried about my age at all," Biden told the Register. "I mean, I know there is a concern. There's concern about his age. But I'm not worried about my age and I know it."The present invention relates to a method of preparing semiconductor material
