2. Features

- Theme The theme of the game is "The Lands Between", with the theme of the graphics being inspired by the traditional fantasy art style of Europe, Japan and Korea. The theme has various interesting corners. The "Lands Between" refers to the ephemeral borders between the world of humans and the world of the gods. This abstract term also refers to an alternative world that we can reach in our dreams or that we can envisage in our wildest imagination. The "Lands Between" is an abstract concept that transcends both worlds. The game is an RPG made for the new generation of players. It was influenced by Japanese animes, fantasy music, European fantasy art style, and the manga/anime "Dragon Quest" game, which was created in 1985.
- Graphics * Engrossing Graphics that Match the Adventure Fantasy The graphics are reminiscent of the "Dragon Quest" game, the first "Final Fantasy" game, and "Mabinogi". The graphics are extremely attractive to a wide audience that is not accustomed to Japanese fantasy art style. By changing the blending of the colors, as well as with slight changes of the level of contrast, the graphics will truly have impact on the player.
- * First RPG Directly Conceived from a South Korean Game Korea is considered the birthplace of RPG games. Therefore, the local developers at EZ Company, who published the original RPG "Mabinogi", are writing this game. We are making a direct sequel to the game "Mabinogi" with the blessing of the author, Lee Dong Yi.
- * Optimized for Tablet devices As the game contains various story areas and various gameplay functions, the game can be played by a smartphone, but the users are demanding a tablet from EZ Company.
