AGCO is the world leader in agricultural feeding and farming equipment. Worldwide, AGCO products have been developed to satisfy the varying needs of farmers in a wide variety of markets, from Europe to Southeast Asia. AGCO is able to provide products and services that can be customized to suit the requirements of individual customers. AGCO distributes its products and services throughout the United States and Canada through a network of more than 5,400 dealers. The AGCO Parts Center network provides AGCO with a quality parts supply that will allow us to respond rapidly to the needs of our customers. The AGCO Parts Centers are located throughout the United States. AGCO, Your Agriculture Company (NYSE: AGCO), a worldwide manufacturer and distributor of agricultural equipment, announces the expansion of its current Kansas City, Mo., AGCO Parts facility to a full-service parts distribution center (PDC). The facility, located in Independence, Mo., covers 900,000 square feet and now includes $100 million of parts inventory, an increase of nearly 40 percent. To mark the official opening, more than 100 dealer representatives and customers toured the facility April 10 and 11 during Grand Opening activities. AGCO Genuine Fuel Filters will capture water, dirt, or rust before they damage engine components. Utilizing AGCO fuel filters ensures the utmost protection and promotion of the well-being of your engine. Our fuel filters are designed to keep the fuel supply to an engine as clean as the engine requires by removing particulate matter or debris. Allowing particulate matter or debris into the engine can lead to a disruption in engine combustion or cause injection system components to wear. Rely on AGCO Genuine Fuel Filters to protect the critical components of your machine and keep you up and running.
